

Christine Manetta

"Great voice" Brian Kemp Radio KLFM

Melbourne Based Christine Manetta is a Multi Award-Winning Songwriter, Vocalist & Recording Artist, with a powerful, evocative voice soaked in a sassy spirit that envelops audiences in a solid drenching of feel-good vibes in every performance. Drawing audiences in, as she moves effortlessly through the gamut of musical styles from sultry tones right through to high energy grooving.

"Blues Music that is refreshingly not Blues" – Glenn Roche – Drummer Black Majesty

Debut Album 'One Woman One Day,' (2022) demonstrates that the pursuit of creative truths knows no limits. As a celebrated songwriter, her collaboration with Adam Rudegear has gained worldwide acclaim, showcasing an eclectic mix of original songs steeped in the power of a well-lived woman, that illuminate the themes of adversity & resilience. An edgy experience of a powerful fusion of energy-driven anthems that blend Western lyrics with African melodies, creating a refreshingly modern sound. An Urban Blues sound that brings the blues right up to date with World Music leanings injected with sinewy horn riffs, jazz-infused movements and a touch of Electronica Howler Blues. Dive into a vibrant sonic journey that redefines what blues can be!
