

Christine Manetta

Songwriter – Vocalist

Christine Manetta is a Melbourne based Multi Award-Winning Songwriter, Vocalist and Recording Artist, with a powerful, evocative voice and stage spirit that captivates the audience.

Christine is well-known for her commanding, yet honest stage presence. Drawing the audience in, as she moves effortlessly through the gamut of musical emotions, from energy driven elation to heartfelt intimate storytelling, paralleled with a voice that moves freely from robust force to deep sultry tones, drenching the audience in a feel-good vibe.

'One Woman One Day'

Christine Manetta, is showing that the pursuit of creative truths, has no barriers, emerging as a celebrated Songwriter, gaining worldwide attention with the Album 'One Woman One Day' (Co-Producer Adam Rudegear). An eclectic collection of original songs steeped in the power of a well-lived woman, that illuminate the themes of adversity and resilience.

"No matter what is dealt your way, you can find you inner strength and rise above it" – Christine

'Blues Music That Is Refreshingly Not Blues'

Christine cuts straight to the emotional core with energy-driven, empowering Anthem Style Songs, amidst the incredibly diverse experience of Western Lyrics married with African Melodies.

A sound that brings the blues right up to date from Afro-Cuban leanings injected with Sinewy Horn Riffs to Electronica Howler Blues through to Jazz influenced Movements intertwining with the musical colour of Christine's greatest inspiration Nina Simone and the Euro-Egyptian musings of her own Heritage.
